Australian Area Conflict Rages

Commonwealth Troops Hurl Selves On Japs In Bougainville; Singapore Confused; Washington Fears For Luzon Army

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
The battle of Australia seemingly began in deadly earnest today as Australian forces hurled themselves on the Japanese invaders of Bougainville Island in the Solomon group.

Australian authorities were convinced the Jap attacks on Bougainville, New Britain, New Guinea and perhaps New Ireland north and northeast of the Australian mainland marked the first stages of a Jap attempt to invade the Commonwealth.

Meanwhile, at Perth, Australian Prime Minister John Curtin vowed Australians would fight steadfastly against a Jap invasion "no matter what comes."

He added the only Australians who would cooperate with the Japs would be dead Australians.

There was little definite news from Singapore regarding the Malayan campaign. Confused fighting still raged on the western Malayan Front, but Australian forces which had been cut off by the Japanese were reported to have escaped from the Nipponese trap and rejoined their command.

In Washington fears were expressed that the American-Filipino defenders of the Bataan Peninsula would be dead.

MORE VOLUNTEERS FOR DEFENSE TASK BEING SOUGHT HERE

A call for immediate enrollment of volunteer workers under the Civilian Defense program in Circleville was voiced Saturday. While many persons have filled out questionnaires offering their services in case of emergency, many more are needed.

Volunteers may enroll at The Daily Herald office which has been designated as recruiting headquarters. Questionnaires are also available from any member of the Defense Council.

A brief summary of persons needed for various duties follows:

RANGOON FIGHT COSTS JAPS 21 RAIDING PLANES

By O. D. Gallagher

RANGOON, Burma, Jan. 24—American and British airmen reached the plane-per-minute mark when they shot down at least 21 Jap aircraft during yesterday's raid on Rangoon, it was announced today.

(Editor's Note: A later dispatch from Rangoon said it was estimated unofficially that seven more Jap planes were shot down during the raid, making the total 28 instead of 21. Anglo-American losses were described as extremely small.)

Since December 23 the daring American volunteer airmen in company with aces of the R.A.F. have shot down at least 120 Nipponese planes.

One American and one British pilot were shot down and killed in

ASHVILLE RUNS UP 85 POINTS IN TILT

Dick Carter's Youths On Top Both Leagues In County; Williamsport Rally Thrilling

Ashville turned on all its scoring guns Friday evening to run up an 85 to 19 victory over the Perry Township quintet, the score being the largest on record in Pickaway County competition. The victory, scored on Ashville's court, kept the Carter-coached outfit on top of the league heap with nine consecutive victories and only Darby and Scioto to turn back a clean slate can be chalked up in the league. Both foes promise to give the Broncos a battle, but the offensive strength shown Friday against Perry would seem to indicate that no team in the county will be able to stop the Harrison Township quintet.

Other scores were:

Varsity

Walnut 39, Monroe 10.
Darby 28, Saltcreek 26.
Washington 40, Jackson 25.
Williamsport 29, New Holland 21.
Scioto 38, School of Deaf 22.
Non-league.

Reserves

Ashville 41, Perry 31.
Walnut 28, Monroe 24.
Darby 25, Saltcreek 16.
Washington 26, Jackson 9.
Williamsport 23, New Holland 18.

Ashville's victory was paced by Eugene Wilson's 11 basket splurge, the red-headed guard pumping the ball from all angles. The reserve loss scored against Perry was its first of the year and leaves Ashville's underclassmen alone on top of the heap.

Walnut had little trouble with Monroe, running up a 10-0 score at halftime.

Saltcreek forced a bigger Darby team to the limit, only to fall by a bucket margin. The Tarlton lads outscored from the field 10 to nine, but missed from the foul line six to 10.

Washington and Jackson engaged in a hard-fought contest. Washington leading all the way but never by a safe margin until near the end of the game.

Williamsport put on one of the greatest second half rallies of the year to overcome New Holland's Bulldogs. The Deer Creek youths were trailing by a 19 to 5 score when the team left the floor, but they held New Holland to two points in the second half while running up 24 on their own account.

Scioto held a three point edge at the half over Ohio Deaf, and won going away in the second half.

• Presbyterian Church Will Conduct Young People's Day Next Sunday

Tuxis Club To Have Important Part In Services

Young People's Day will be observed Sunday morning at First Presbyterian Church. Throughout the Presbyterian church at large special emphasis will be given to the work of the young people.

Sunday morning the officers of the Tuxis Club will speak briefly of the local work. During the ten-thirty hour Betty Moeller will present the theme, "Build Today for a Christian World." Dolly Madison will speak of the purpose, "A Christian World Must Have Christ." The task, "Working Together With God," will be presented by Mary Lou Kochheiser.

The Rev. Robert T. Kelsey, pastor, has chosen for his sermon topic "Youth Faces the Future."

Music for this special service will center in the theme of youth emphasis. The Presbyterian Choir will sing the anthem "I Will Lift Mine Eyes" by Edwards. Many members of the Tuxis Club are also members of the choir.

The organist, Miss Abbe Mills Clarke, has chosen to play during this service numbers that young people enjoy. She will play "The Lost Chord" by Sullivan, "Casanetta" by d'Ambrosio, and "Finale" by Haydn.

The Presbyterian Board of Christian Education carries on the task of ministering to 500,000 young people between 13 and 23 years of age. This agency provides for 135 summer conferences for seniors and young people and 55 camp conferences for intermediates. There are 200 Presbyterian youth organizations. The local Tuxis Club is affiliated with the Columbus Presbytery Youth League.

TWO WILL LEAD YOUTH MEETING OF METHODISTS

Miss Mary Short and Miss Marlene Hennessy will be leaders of the Methodist Youth Fellowship Sunday evening at First Methodist Church. Topic for the evening's discussion will be poetry. The program will start at 6:30.

Young folk of First Methodist church are making plans for the Chillicothe District Epworth League Institute to be held in Ashville Saturday, January 31. All Methodist youth groups of the district will be invited to participate in the Institute.

Wall brushes, venetian blind brushes, and brushes used to clean bed springs should be washed after each use.

TOUCHING GOD

By Rev. Harold Dutt
Stoutsburg

In these war-torn times, when chaos and confusion are tearing life to pieces, we need inner resources to enable us to stand. These resources are not acquired by human effort but by touching God, the Eternal One. In this day of gloom we have the blessed assurance that God is. Also His Word promises us that we can come in vital contact with Him through His Son Jesus Christ. When Christ was on earth many who had needs touched Him by faith and at once their needs were supplied. Divine Revelation reveals that "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever." Therefore by faith we can touch Him today and in doing so can realize vital help from above.

The Scripture tells of the instance when a woman had a vital need and by touching the Master she was made whole. This took place when Jesus was summoned unto the house of Jairus whose daughter was dying. On this hurried mission Christ took time to meet the urgent need of this woman who had an issue of blood for twelve years. She "had spent all her living on physicians, neither could be healed of any." As Jesus passed by the multitude thronged Him. "The woman came behind Him, and touched the border of His garment: immediately her issue of blood stanched and Jesus said, 'Who touched me?' When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, 'Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, who touched me?' And Jesus said, 'Somebody hath touched me for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.' And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before Him, she declared unto Him before all the people for what cause she had touched Him, and how she was healed immediately. And He said unto her, 'Daughter, be of good comfort; they that hath made thee whole; go in peace.' (Luke 8:44-48.)

Today we are touching God or are we touching God? In Jesus' day the multitude thronged Him but only a few ever touched Him. Only those who touched Him had their vital needs met. It appears that in our day many are thronging Christ in our Churches during the Christmas and Easter season and in the benefits of Christianity such as our hospitals, educational institutions and charitable organizations, but only a few ever touch Him. Today we can touch this person by faith and have our needs met just as definitely as the woman did when Christ was on earth.

We want to point out first that this woman had faith in Christ. In the second place she exercised that faith by touching Jesus. The Word says "Faith without works is dead." I believe that she could have had all the faith in the world but without exercising it she would have remained in illness. She did more than strong Christ, she touched Him by faith. This is the kind of faith that works.

St. Paul touched God on the Damascus road and he was never the same after that. This experience was not transitory but produced the world's greatest apostle, missionary and sacred writer. Paul always held his experience on the Damascus road as paramount in his life.

The story is told of John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist Church, who was educated for the ministry at Oxford. After achieving his education he came to America to convert the American Indian but soon discovered that revival services which have been in progress in the Church of the Brethren for the last week will continue until Sunday evening, February 1.

The Rev. J. W. Fyock, Alliance, travelling salesman for fifteen years and known to many as "The Salesman Evangelist" is delivering the sermons. The Rev. Harold R. Myers, pastor of the church, reports that large audiences attended the services this week and larger crowds are expected during the second week of the campaign.

On Saturday evening the subject of the message will be "This Great Business of Being Christian," and on Sunday morning the Evangelist will speak on "Religion in the Home." Sunday evening the sermon subject will be "The Cross in Our Everyday Life." The public is invited to the services.

The Temptation of Jesus

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—Matt. 4:1-11; Mark 1:12, 13; Luke 4:1-13.

By Alfred J. Buescher

Central Press Association
DUSTIN-1-24

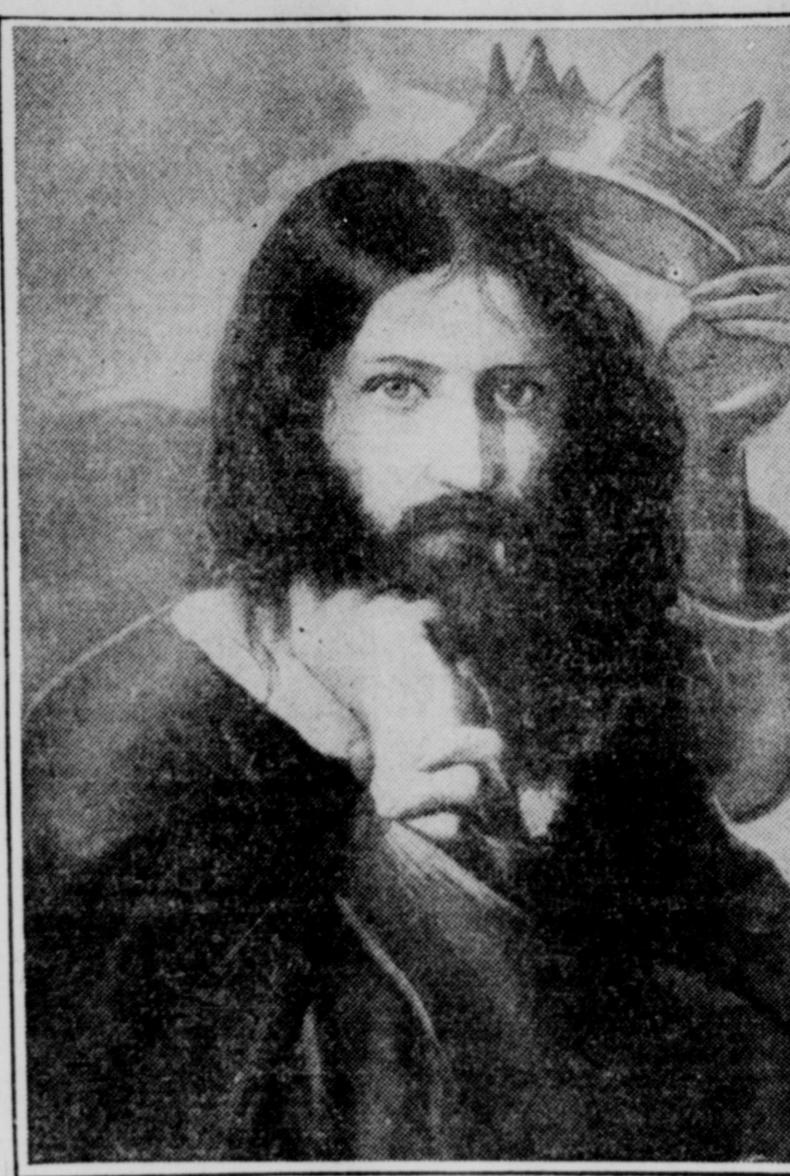

After fasting 40 days and 40 nights in the wilderness, Jesus was hungry. The tempter came to Him and said, that if He really was the Son of God He could turn stones into bread. Jesus answered: "Man shall not live by bread alone."

Satan then took Him up to a high pinnacle of the temple in Jerusalem, and told Him to cast Himself down, for the angels of God would bear Him up. Jesus answered, "It is written, 'Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.'

The Evil One then took our Lord up into a very high mountain and shewed Him all the kingdoms of the world. "All these things will I give thee if thou wilt fall down and worship me," he said. Jesus answered, "Get thee hence, Satan."

"Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve," was Jesus' answer to Satan's third temptation, and realizing then that He could not be tempted, the Evil One left, and angels came and ministered unto Him.

EARLY RISING

THIS daylight-saving business that starts

on February 9 is a comfortable way to fool ourselves into doing something sensible. It's a sort of eating our time and still having it. We turn our clocks on one hour, and then we automatically get up an hour earlier and go to bed an hour earlier. The benefit won't be very obvious at once, but as spring approaches and the sun himself rises earlier, the system will work better.

There's really something pleasant and satisfying in getting up more or less with the sun, according to people who have tried it. You seem to be turning on the daylight yourself, or at least getting in tune with the cosmic order. It makes a fellow feel wonderfully virtuous. The birds will soon be singing, too. They do their stuff best in the early morning—maybe because they themselves are feeling so righteous and self-satisfied about it.

The President told Sabath that going to the rescue of little business will be one of the first jobs tackled by Donald Nelson in his new capacity as war production czar. Nelson is ideally equipped for this job, the President said, because of his sympathetic attitude toward the problems of little business men growing out of the emergency.

"The little fellow has a real friend in Don Nelson," Roosevelt declared. "That was one of the reasons I appointed him."

The President also disclosed that big primary contractors will be compelled to farm out a larger proposition of Army and Navy orders under a plan being perfected by Nelson. He and Nelson already have had one conference on the small business problem and others are slated in the near future.

The President added that he had sent word to Federal Loan boss Jesse Jones that immediate steps be taken to "expedite aid" through RFC loans to small consumer-industry plants now facing closings, but which are capable of conversion to war manufacturing. So far, however, Jones has not reported back on the matter.

"I'm certainly glad to hear this, Mr. President," said Sabath. "The big fellow can get all the money he wants from Jesse Jones, but the little man has to go through so much red tape and delays that, before his loan is okayed, he has lost the contract or is forced to close down his plant."

FIRST SHOT

The first shot of the war has been fired by one of the soldiers guarding Washington.

It happened the other night in the cold, stilly darkness of 4 a. m. No one was hurt, but the milkman who provoked the shot is still quaking in his boots.

The milkman drove up in his truck loaded with dairy products for the Capitol restaurants. Dismounting, he darted towards a freight elevator on the Senate side, planning to press a button signaling a workman inside to raise the elevator.

The milkman didn't see a soldier on sentry duty nearby, nor hear him when he shouted, "Halt!" The milkman continued his dash toward the elevator, but a mo-

'ROUND CIRCLEVILLE . . . Hour by Hour

Pages From the Diary of An Antiquated Reporter:

Out and about the ville on a lovely morning, just my kind of winter. Seems as though each year at just about the time when the cold sets me to hankering for Florida, the mercury mounts and makes me glad that I am here. Scanned the morning prints and then headed for the post. Met Russ Valentine who asked whether or not I intend going on a northern fishing trip next summer. Who knows? May be casting grenades instead of flies or plugs by that time.

Chatted with Roger Vega, who hails from Cuba. "I can't understand some people," he remarked. "I hear many complain that they are required to give to this, give to that, pay heavy taxes, invest in Defense Bonds. We should all be glad that we are asked. Almost everywhere else in the world the citizens are told."

Came a card from Dave Dunlap who is sojourning in Florida. Says the tourists are none too plentiful, probably because of fear of bombings.

Congratulations to Charlie Gilmore on the new power and light sign. A beauty. Charlie first promised the sign something more than a year ago and from the time of the original promise until the new one was lighted took a terrific verbal beating from his friends. Now, the tables are turned.

Chat with Roger Vega, who hails from Cuba. "I can't understand some people," he remarked. "I hear many complain that they are required to give to this, give to that, pay heavy taxes, invest in Defense Bonds. We should all be glad that we are asked. Almost everywhere else in the world the citizens are told."

Ray Bales jokingly demanded that there be no more cooking school. "For three days I have not been able to park within three blocks of my home," he said. And that is right, for Ray lives across the street from Memorial hall where the greatest of the series of Herald cooking schools has just ended. My, how the women turn out for that event. Really need a much larger building to accommodate the crowds.

Some way can be found out of the city's financial difficulties. Hopes for lights and more police protection, both of which are sorely needed. Someone aptly described the ville after sundown by saying it is as dark as the inside of a black cat to which someone added "during a blackout." And that really is some shady.

How about volunteering for service in the local Civilian Defense setup. Many more volunteers are needed. We may not have any actual contact with war at all, but on the other hand who can tell. And if we do have a local emergency how could it ever be handled without reasonable preparation. The government is demanding that we prepare to meet any situation, and prepare we will. You can help a lot if you are inclined to do so. All that is necessary is to register at The Herald office or with any member of the Defense Council. Special training will be provided for everyone.

Mayor Ben dropped in for a chat and seemed hopeful that peal urging every citizen of Circleville and the county to aid needy persons in any way possible.

Dr. A. W. Holman gave a splendid review of his trip to Europe at a meeting of the Women's Social Club of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Hazel Rader, his widow, and C. W. Neff were named administrators of the estate of the late Earl Rader, Jackson Township. The estate was estimated to be worth $50,000, $45,000 of which was in personal property.

George Dennis, 71-year-old Five Points storekeeper, was painfully and seriously injured when struck by the automobile of Robert Barton, superintendent of Monroe Township Schools.

The C. A. C. offered its gymnasium for the reception and banquet honoring the Circleville boys returning from border duty.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kuert returned to Indianapolis, Ind., after a visit with his sister, Mrs. Charles Mason.

ROOSEVELT AND NELSON

WASHINGTON—Representative

Adolph Sabath, chairman of the House Rules committee, got an earful of cheering news about plans for succoring war-hit little business during his talk with the President. The President told the Illinoisan that two measures are in the works:

(1) "Spreading out" of war production by mandatory sub-contracts to the thousands of small firms being forced to the wall because of material shortages and curtailment of civilian goods production.

(2) RFC "distress" loans to enable such firms to finance additional facilities needed for war work.

The President told Sabath that going to the rescue of little business will be one of the first jobs tackled by Donald Nelson in his new capacity as war production czar.

Nelson is ideally equipped for this job, the President said, because of his sympathetic attitude toward the problems of little business men growing out of the emergency.

Whooping Cough, Rife in Winter, May Be Serious

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

TO COMMEMORATE this date appropriately, I find in Dr. Harvey Cushing's classic Life of William Oster a letter from Dr. Oster dated January 24th.

"Aunt Gracie is better today, but she has coughed and coughed and coughed. Can't you hear her whooping through this writing? It just gave me a shudder as I heard it. Poor Ike is sure to catch it."

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

Ike was the son Rovere, aged then seven. What he caught from Aunt Gracie was, of course, whooping cough. Aunt Gracie was, in fact, his mother and was about forty years old at the time. The lesson is that which is implied in the old catch question in medical classes: "If whooping cough were brought into a household, who would be most likely to catch it?" The answer is "Grandma."

An adult in a household may come home with a bad cough and before it is recognized, spread whooping cough all through the family. This is probably more or less inevitable, but it does carry the warning that respiratory infections which are put down to a chest cold or "a cough that hangs on" should be kept away as much as is possible and practical from the other members of the family.

Preventive Vaccine

I think that under these circumstances the use of the preventive vaccine for whooping cough should be considered. While I do not have enough confidence in it to recommend it for every child on entering school, I do believe that in the presence of an epidemic it will prove its usefulness. It has about a seventy per cent record of efficiency.

Whooping cough is by no means a disease to take lightly. It may be very serious, either in children or in adults. In children the paroxysms of coughing and the vomiting which follow are particularly exhaustive. For that reason I strongly recommend that all cases should be under the care of an experienced physician. The doctor can do a great deal with medicine to alleviate the distress in these patients by cutting down the amount of coughing and the number of paroxysms a day by making the mucus more liquid and easier to get up.

Such simple remedies as an abdominal binder for a child, which gives him something to cough against, are helpful out of all proportion to their simplicity.

The nutrition of the child with whooping cough can be controlled fairly easily in most cases.

It must be remembered that the child does not vomit because it is sick at its stomach, but simply because of a reflex which begins with the straining in the throat. It is able to take food within a few minutes after it vomits.

Liquid foods that are high in nutrition and heated so as to be soothing can be got down without trouble. Stupid and unnecessary mistakes are often made with these children in giving them food which may allow particles to remain in the throat. I remember a well-meaning grandmother who kept a poor little child in constant paroxysms by insisting on a diet of crackers and toast.

QUESTION AND ANSWERS

Mrs. M. E. A.:—"Are fibroid tumors cancerous?"

Answer: No.

L. H. C.: "What is the cause of simple sore throat? What is a remedy for it? Do pale lips signify anemia and if so what would you suggest for a diet?"

Answer: It is hard to tell what you mean by simple sore throat.

It may be pharyngitis or tonsillitis, or what appears to you to be simple might be something that is not simple at all, such as Vincent's angina or diphtheria. I gather from your question that it occurs to you quite often, so that rules out diphtheria. Pharyngitis, tonsillitis and Vincent's angina are all recurrent. If it is tonsillitis, you should have your tonsils removed.

If it is Vincent's angina, you

EARLY RISING

THIS daylight-saving business that starts

on February 9 is a comfortable way to fool ourselves into doing something sensible. It's a sort of eating our time and still having it. We turn our clocks on one hour, and then we automatically get up an hour earlier and go to bed an hour earlier. The benefit won't be very obvious at once, but as spring approaches and the sun himself rises earlier, the system will work better.

There's really something pleasant and satisfying in getting up more or less with the sun, according to people who have tried it. You seem to be turning on the daylight yourself, or at least getting in tune with the cosmic order. It makes a fellow feel wonderfully virtuous. The birds will soon be singing, too. They do their stuff best in the early morning—maybe because they themselves are feeling so righteous and self-satisfied about it.

The President told Sabath that going to the rescue of little business will be one of the first jobs tackled by Donald Nelson in his new capacity as war production czar. Nelson is ideally equipped for this job, the President said, because of his sympathetic attitude toward the problems of little business men growing out of the emergency.

"The little fellow has a real friend in Don Nelson," Roosevelt declared. "That was one of the reasons I appointed him."

The President also disclosed that big primary contractors will be compelled to farm out a larger proportion of Army and Navy orders under a plan being perfected by Nelson. He and Nelson already have had one conference on the small business problem and others are slated in the near future.

The President added that he had sent word to Federal Loan boss Jesse Jones that immediate steps be taken to "expedite aid" through RFC loans to small consumer-industry plants now facing closings, but which are capable of conversion to war manufacturing. So far, however, Jones has not reported back on the matter.

"I'm certainly glad to hear this, Mr. President," said Sabath. "The big fellow can get all the money he wants from Jesse Jones, but the little man has to go through so much redtape and delays that, before his loan is okayed, he has lost the contract or is forced to close down his plant."

Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON AND ROBERT S. ALLEN

ROOSEVELT AND NELSON

WASHINGTON—Representative

Adolph Sabath, chairman of the House Rules committee, got an earful of cheering news about plans for succoring war-hit little business during his talk with the President. The President told the Illinoisan that two measures are in the works:

(1) "Spreading out" of war production by mandatory sub-contracts to the thousands of small firms being forced to the wall because of material shortages and curtailment of civilian goods production.

(2) RFC "distress" loans to enable such firms to finance additional facilities needed for war work.

The President told Sabath that going to the rescue of little business will be one of the first jobs tackled by Donald Nelson in his new capacity as war production czar. Nelson is ideally equipped for this job, the President said, because of his sympathetic attitude toward the problems of little business men growing out of the emergency.

DIET AND HEALTH

Whooping Cough, Rife in Winter, May Be Serious

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

TO COMMEMORATE this date appropriately, I find in Dr. Harvey Cushing's classic Life of William Osler a letter from Dr. Osler dated January 24th.

"Aunt Gracie is better today, but she has coughed and coughed

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

Liquid foods that are high in nutrition and heated so as to be soothing can be got down without trouble. Stupid and unnecessary mistakes are often made with these children in giving them food which may allow particles to remain in the throat. I remember a well-meaning grandmother who kept a poor little child in constant paroxysms by insisting on a diet of crackers and toast.

QUESTION AND ANSWERS

Mrs. M. E. A.:—"Are fibroid tumors cancerous?"

Answer: No.

L. H. C.:—"What is the cause of simple sore throat? What is a remedy for it? Do pale lips signify anemia and if so what would you suggest for a diet?"

Answer: It is hard to tell what you mean by simple sore throat. It may be pharyngitis or tonsillitis, or what appears to you to be simple might be something that is not simple at all, such as Vincent's angina or diphtheria. I gather from your question that it occurs to you quite often, so that rules out diphtheria. Pharyngitis, tonsillitis and Vincent's angina are all recurrent. If it is tonsillitis, you should have your tonsils removed. If it is Vincent's angina, you should have local treatment from a nose-and-throat doctor. If it is simple pharyngitis, simple treatment with gargles of hot water and salt, plenty of rest, and aspirin will be sufficient.

The same criticism that applies to your first question applies to your second. It is not fair to try to judge the severity of an anemia by looking at the lips. A blood count taken by a physician will tell you immediately.

Preventive Vaccine

I think that under these circumstances the use of the preventive vaccine for whooping cough should be considered. While I do not have enough confidence in it to recommend it for every child on entering school, I do believe that in the presence of an epidemic it will prove its usefulness. It has about a seventy per cent record of efficiency.

Whooping cough is by no means a disease to take lightly. It may be very serious, either in children or in adults. In children the paroxysms of coughing and the vomiting which follow are particularly exhaustive. For that reason I strongly recommend that all cases should be under the care of an experienced physician. The doctor can do a great deal with medicine to alleviate the distress in these patients by cutting down the amount of coughing and the number of paroxysms a day by making the mucus more liquid and easier to get up.

Such simple remedies as an abdominal binder for a child, which will help to relieve the pressure in the chest, will be of great value.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clendening has seven pamphlets which can be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, and a self-addressed envelope to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of the Herald.

The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet"; "Indigestion and Constipation"; "Refrigerated Gains for Infant Feeding"; "Instruction for the Treatment of Diabetics"; "Feminine Hygiene"; and "The Care of the Hair and Skin".

New Master In Charge Of Washington Grange

Ralph Delong Takes Over; Program
Enjoyed

SOCIAL CALENDAR

A splendid meeting was enjoyed Friday by members of Washington Grange when Ralph DeLong, newly installed worthy master, conducted his first meeting in Washington School auditorium. All of the new officers were in their chairs.

Mrs. Fannie Brooks, Pickaway County food representative for the AAA, was guest speaker and gave excellent advice on conserving foods in her talk, "Food for Freedom."

C. M. Reid, worthy master of Star Grange and Pickaway County delegate to the state grange, gave an interesting report on the recent convention.

Group singing and a piano solo, "Valse" in A-flat, by Miss Dorothy Glick completed the program for the evening. Miss Ethyl May, worthy lecturer, was in charge of the evening's entertainment.

Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Radcliff and daughter, Verna Jean, of Jackson Township were guests at an open house Friday at the home of Dan Row, Columbus, the occasion honoring Miss Geneva Row. Miss Row leaves January 30 for Fort Knox, Ky., where she goes into service as a reserve army nurse.

Bride Honored

Mrs. Herbert L. Patterson (Minnie Callahan), a recent bride, was guest of honor at a buffet supper and bridge party Thursday at the Town House, Chillicothe. Mrs. Paul Marzluff, Miss Elizabeth Cronin and Miss Ruth Hemmerle were hostesses to 30 guests.

Bridge prizes were carried home by Mrs. Virgil Hess, Mrs. Walter Brindle, Mrs. John Eberle and Miss Ruth Lightle.

Mrs. Don Cast, sister of the bride, received a farewell gift. Mr. and Mrs. Cast are leaving soon to

Columbus Luncheon

Mrs. Christian Schwarz of Watt Street was a guest at a luncheon Friday at the home of Mrs. Nelle Burba of Oakwood Avenue, Columbus. Eight were entertained at 1 p.m. at the Burba home, the affair marking the birthday anniversaries of three members of her bridge club.

Circleville W.C.T.U.

Circleville Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Mrs. A. V. Osborne, 425 East Main Street, Thursday, January 29, at 2 p.m. Members are requested to note the change in date and hour of meeting. Business of importance is to be transacted at this meeting.

Birthday Party

Mrs. F. K. Blair of East Mound Street was hostess at a delightful birthday party Friday, the affair honoring her daughter, Marilyn, on her tenth anniversary date.

The guests included Patty Valentine, Dolores Mavis, Wanetae Burnham, Phyllis Hawks, Norma Ruth Howard, Patsy Johnson, Bernice Hamilton, Marjorie Thornton, Jeannine Bell, Patsy Irwin and Connie Mettler.

The girls were invited for 4 o'clock and came with lovely remembrances for the honor guest.

Games and contests were enjoyed, prizes going to Dolores Mavis, Jeannine Bell, Patsy Irwin and Connie Mettler.

A dessert course was served in the dining room after the games. Yellow, pink, and green were used in all party appointments.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. F. K. Blair of East Mound Street was hostess at a delightful birthday party Friday, the affair honoring her daughter, Marilyn, on her tenth anniversary date.

The guests included Patty Valentine, Dolores Mavis, Waneeta Bungarner, Phyllis Hawks, Norma Ruth Howard, Patsy Johnson, Bernice Hamilton, Marjorie Thornton, Jeannine Bell, Patsy Irwin and Connie Mettler. The girls were invited for 4 o'clock and came with lovely remembrances for the honor guest.

Group singing and a piano solo, "Valse" in A-flat, by Miss Dorothy Glick completed the program for the evening. Miss Ethyl May, worthy lecturer, was in charge of the evening's entertainment.

Group singing and a piano solo, "Valse" in A-flat, by Miss Dorothy Glick completed the program for the evening. Miss Ethyl May, worthy lecturer, was in charge of the evening's entertainment.

OPEN HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Radcliff and daughter, Verna Jean, of Jackson Township were guests at an open house Friday at the home of Dan Row, Columbus, the occasion honoring Miss Geneva Row. Miss Row leaves January 30 for Fort Knox, Ky., where she goes into service as a reserve army nurse.

Bride Honored

Mrs. Herbert L. Patterson and Minnie Callahan, a recent bride, was guest of honor at a buffet supper and bridge party Thursday at the Town House, Chillicothe.

Mrs. Paul Marzluft, Miss Elizabeth Cronin and Miss Ruth Hemmerle were hostesses to 30 guests.

Bridge prizes were carried home by Mrs. Virgil Hess, Mrs. Walter Brandie, Mrs. John Eberle and Miss Ruth Lightle.

Mrs. Don Cast, sister of the bride, received a farewell gift. Mr. and Mrs. Cast are leaving soon to make their home in San Francisco.

Both Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Cast are former residents of Circleville.

Dinner Bridge

Patriotic decorations of red, white and blue candles, small silk flags and Victory party appointments were used Friday when Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGhee of Williamsport entertained their dinner-bridge club at their home.

The guests were served at 7 p.m. at one large and several small tables.

Those present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hunter, West Union Street, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bowers, Ashville; Mr. and Mrs. Russell McDill, Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Baker, Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. George LeMay, Mr. and Mrs. H.W. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Luellen, Mr. and Mrs. S.B. Metzger.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Brown of

New Philadelphia came Saturday to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Briggs and Miss Benadine Yates of North Scioto Street.

For December there are as follows: "Christmas Stories," a collection of Dickens' famous books. Included in these is the immortal Scrooge of the Christmas Carol and the Goblin Story of the Chimes.

George Eliot's "Silas Marner" comes next. Silas, a lonely miser, shunned by everyone, is finally reformed by a child.

"Autobiography," by Benjamin Franklin, statesman, scientist and philosopher gives us the story of his achievement and wisdom from his experience.

Nathaniel Hawthorne also makes his contribution with "The House of Seven Gables." A novel of sinister inherited influences, with background of romance and mystery is threaded through the lives of an old New England family.

"Plain Tales from the Hills" by Rudyard Kipling completes the list. You will have many thrilling adventures with British troops in India if you read the book.

January's books as noted above are "free." Louisa May Alcott wrote the initial book "Little Women." With this delightful story of an old fashioned family most of us are familiar.

"Oliver Twist" is Charles Dickens' second offering to the guild. He describes an English boy's struggles to overcome the hardships and dangers in an environment of crime. His natural goodness, however, carries him through poverty and temptation to a happy life.

The following students have an average of B or better for the last six weeks period and are placed on the honor roll.

Grade 12 Helen Bowman, Paul Brobst, Doris Kraft.

Grade 11 David Bolender, Robert Klingensmith, Faye Kraft, Lloyd Spangler.

Grade 10 Robert L. Stevenson concludes this form with "The Master of Ballantrae," a Scotch romance of the eighteenth century. It concerns the somber tragedy of the enmity of two brothers.

Grade 9 Martha Bolender, Clara Diltz, Ruth Goode, George Steele.

Grade 8 Agnes Goode, June Knecht, Carl Ott.

Grade 7 Norma Jean Hartranft, Robert Steele.

Grade 6 Raymond Goode, Paul David Kraft, Betty Jane McCoy, Norma Jean Wilkey, Kathleen Young.

Grade 5 Clifford Keaton, Martha Lee Matz, Clyde O'Dell, Billy Richards.

Grade 4 Marilyn Diltz, Joyce Huston, Helen Knecht.

Grade 3 Barbara Brobst, Martha Hamilton, Betty Ann Matz, Marlene Steele, Billy Stout.

Grade 2 Eva Mae Lowery.

Grade 1 Billy Brungs, John Anderson, John Goode, John Scott, Doris Smith, Adelaide Wertman, Beverly Lou Wertman.

The Temperance Day program was in charge of the Freshmen class. They presented the one act play, "All in a Day," in the form of a radio broadcast.

Friday, January 16, the following games were played and scores were: Juniors 35, Freshmen 15; Senior A 21, Senior B 16; and seventh and eighth grades 32, Sophomores 11.

These games ended the first half of the intramural season. The Senior A team went undefeated through the half to win the first half championship. The teams and their respective games won and lost are:

Team Won Lost Senior A 5 0 7th and 8th grades 4 1 Juniors 2 3 Senior B 2 3 Freshmen 1 4 Sophomores 1 4

Scoring leadership in the first half was taken by one point. Leon Simms, seventh and eighth grades, pouring 51 points through the net to 50 points by Jack Simson of the Senior A's. The first ten scores follow:

Simms 7th and 8th grades 51 Simson Senior A 50 Seigwald Senior B 35 Cook Junior 32 B. Wolf 7th and 8th grades 29 Betz Senior A 26 Moorehead 7th and 8th grades 25 Bach Junior 23 Evers Sophomores 22 Lovenshimer Freshmen 18

Last Wednesday the second round started off with a "bang". The Freshmen and Sophomores almost scored upsets over the Senior teams but the Freshmen were beaten in the last half by Senior B, 24-17, and the sophomores, after leading for three quarters, by Senior A, 35-31. The Juniors came through with the upset however, beating the seventh and eighth grades, 23-20.

We've got to admit, anyhow, that those Russian Reds are red-blooded.

GUILD RECEIVES NEW BOOK LISTS

Wednesday, Miss Margaret Rooney received and distributed the books for the Student Book Guild. Accompanying the books were two new book forms, December and January. The January form is a "free" list. This means that if any pupil has been a member for four consecutive months he may have any one of

PICKAWAY CHAPTER SET UP TO FIGHT RAVAGES OF POLIO

Mrs. Frank L. Marion Named Chairman Of Committee; Purpose Outlined

A Pickaway County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis was organized Friday night when a group of citizens from Circleville and Pickaway County gathered in the Common Pleas courtroom of the Court House.

Directing the activities of the newly organized chapter will be Mrs. Frank L. Marion, 307 East Franklin Street, elected chairman and secretary. Fred C. Clark, director of the local Infantile Paralysis campaign, will serve as vice-chairman and Robert Colville will be treasurer.

Dr. A. D. Blackburn, county health commissioner, will head the executive committee of the chapter.

The chapter was organized after J. E. Trautman, director of the state Infantile campaign and Mr. Clark, local director, had discussed the benefits which the community would gain by having such an organization.

The National Foundation is a non-profit membership organization, established in 1938 to combat Infantile Paralysis, including cause, prevention and treatment. It has no connection with any organization other than its own local chapters and the Committee for the Celebration of the President's Birthday. This Committee is the National Foundation's fund-raising unit.

Duty of the local chapter will be to assist those afflicted with infantile paralysis, regardless of age, race, color or creed, in Pickaway County. This assistance includes orthopedic equipment of hospital expenses for patients in need of that care. During epidemics the volunteer workers not only aid those stricken by the disease but also work with doctors and public health officials.

One-half the money raised through the President's Birthday Ball and other infantile paralysis fund-raising campaigns, is left in the Community House Thursday, January 29th from 5 to 8 o'clock. Price 35c. —ad.

Mrs. Hervey J. Sweyer, who underwent a serious eye operation Monday in Grant Hospital, Columbus, is making an excellent recovery and is able to receive visitors. Mrs. Sweyer, who is a former resident of Circleville, has been residing with her sister, Miss Ann Leist, of Columbus.

Mrs. C. D. Shook, who is recovering in Grant Hospital, Columbus, after a recent operation, will be removed Monday to her home on North Court Street.

Dr. Tom Haber of Columbus is in Holmes Hospital, Cincinnati, for observation. Dr. Haber is widely known in Pickaway County where he has frequently visited at the John Stevenson home, Jackson Township. Mrs. Haber is the former Grace Stevenson. Howard Newell Stevenson of North Court Street is recovering after a major operation in Holmes Hospital which he underwent Thursday. He will remain in the hospital for the next two weeks.

Walnut and Madison Townships will share in $83.82 inheritance tax, paid from the estate of the late Clarence B. Noecker. Total value of the estate was $23,882.41, of which about $8,000 was subject to tax. The property goes to the widow and three children.

A terrific British aerial attack which smashed and scattered 400 enemy motorized transport vehicles on the Libyan desert was announced by the British Air Ministry today.

According to an observer, the air ministry said, the transports were packed like sardines in a Libyan battle area when they were attacked on Thursday by fighter and bomber aircraft of the imperial air forces.

"Making the operation more notable," the air ministry said, "was the fact that Kitty Hawk fighters simultaneously attacked an escorted formation of Stuka dive-bombers. The Kitty Hawks were flown by a squadron of the Royal Australian Air Force which now holds the record bag of enemy aircraft in the middle east."

At Rio De Janeiro, delegates to the Inter-American conference were scheduled to adopt the new and more moderate resolution "recommending" a joint rupture of diplomatic relations with the axis powers.

Total railroad investments, including road and equipment amounts to $26,500,000,000.

Persons May Apply

16, the final day of registration, the hours will be from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. All persons within the county required to register will appear at the court house on one of the three days in accordance with the following plan:

The Draft Board requests that persons whose last name begins with the letters A to F appear for registration on Saturday, February 14, between 12 noon and 6 p.m.; persons whose last name begins with the letters G to Q should register Sunday, February 15, from 12 noon to 6 p.m., and all persons whose last name begins with letters R to Z should appear for registration Monday, February 16, between 7 a.m. and 9 p.m.

It is to be understood, however, that this plan is entirely voluntary and should it work a hardship on any person to comply, he may register at the time most convenient. All persons must be registered by 9 p.m., February 15.

The board seeks the cooperation of all persons required to register in carrying out the plan for alphabetic registration. The plan is an attempt to spread the registration evenly over the three day period in order that there will be no waiting in line.

AGES 20-45 Vital

All male persons between the ages 20 to 45, who have not heretofore registered, must appear for registration. The regulations specifically provide that all male persons who were 20 years old on or before December 31, 1941 and who have not reached their 45 birthday on February 16, 1942 must be registered. Men who have registered at previous registrations will not register again.

In order to conduct the registration efficiently and without loss of time, registrants at the time they appear for registering will be handed a mimeographed form containing the information required on the registration card. They will be requested to write the necessary information, such as correct name, address, age, date of birth, occupation, height and weight. This information will be handed to a registrar who will transfer information to a registration card which the registrant must sign. All registrants will be given a Certificate of Registration which they must thereafter carry at all times.

Persons required to register who are invalids and unable to come to the Court House for registration should notify the Local Office, phone 283, and a registrar will be sent to the home or said invalid.

The Local Selective Service Board will be assisted in the registration by members of the American Legion and other volunteers, many of whom have offered assistance. A list of all persons volunteering assistance will be kept at the Local Office and volunteers will be notified if and when their services are needed.

MRS. WILLIAM C. BAUM DIES; FUNERAL MONDAY

Mrs. Clare Weaver Baum, 80, widow of William C. Baum, died Saturday at 3:30 a.m. at her home, 204 East Mound Street. She had been ill several days of complications.

Mrs. Baum was born February 20, 1861 in Walnut Township, a daughter of Philip and Mary Peters Weaver. Her husband died January 25, 1933. Survivors include a brother, Clayton of Walnut Township and a sister, Mrs. Mattie P. Ashbrook of Columbus.

The funeral will be Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the residence, the Rev. Neil Peterson officiating. Burial will be in Reber Hill Cemetery by the Albaugh Co. Pall bearers will include William Goeller, Ralph Fisher, Curtis Cromley, Ray Ashbrook, Paul Ashbaugh and Harold Paxton.

sub with aerial bombs, one or more of which fell on the deck of the raider, but failed to explode. Indications are that no "duds" are being dropped today.

Many factors are responsible for the apparently successful "counter blows" being given by the Navy in the present "war of the shipping lanes."

It is known that "blimps," are playing an important role in helping to track down raiders. They hover over the sea, enabling their crews to spot shadows of U-boats even when they are submerged. Seaplanes, torpedo boats and destroyers also are deadly enemies of subs.

STATEMENT GIVEN

Detection devices also have been improved since World War I, especially by the American navy, with the result that subs, as rule, steer clear of warships. These are some of the reasons why the Navy spokesman told the press:

"Some of the recent visitors to our territorial waters will never enjoy the return trip portion of their voyage. Furthermore, the percentage of one-way traffic is increasing, while that of two-way traffic is satisfactorily on the decline."

What the spokesman wanted to put across, however, was the need for secrecy regarding the possible sinking or capture of enemy submarines. The Nazis naturally expect to lose submarines, but presumably it isn't very soothing to the nerves of axis officials or other sub crew members if they are "kept in the dark" about the fate of their raiders.

In asking Americans not to repeat reports or rumors about submarine sinkings, or to spread the story "even if you have seen a submarine captured or destroyed," the spokesman explained:

The Nazis think themselves pretty clever in the field of psychological warfare. Secrecy surrounding the fate of their submarines is a counter-blow the American people can give them which may serve to shake some of their super-confidence."

NEW EXECUTIVE NAMED

CHILLICOTHE, Jan. 24—Merill Hall, principal at Butler high school near Mansfield, is the new Boy Scout field executive of the Chillicothe district. Hall will resign his position as principal and coach on February 1 to attend the National Scout Executive Training School at Miamiand, New Jersey. He will assume his scouting duties on March 1.

CHILLICOTHEAN FINED

Garrett S. Claypool, Chillicothe, was fined $10 and costs by Justice of Peace B. T. Hedges Saturday for speeding on Route 23 south of Circleville. The arrest was made Thursday by H. A. Watson of the state highway patrol, who claimed Claypool was driving 80 miles an hour.

An Instrument Of State
On the whole, if the church of any faith is to function at all under the Rosenberg plan, it would do so only as an instrument of the state and as a national means to an end, like, for instance, the Compulsory Labor Service and without much Christianity.

This, then, was the fountain of inspiration from which hard men of ambition like Bormann and Himmler drank great draughts and over the year saturated their minds with its poison.

When the time and opportunity came to Bormann to vent his hatred against the Jews and Catholics he did so with a furious passion, rousing all of his ilk in brown uniform to the task in hand and urging them to devote all energy and resource to the disciplining and "adjustment" of the Catholic Church.

He found ready help in the heartless machinery of Himmler's Gestapo, and it was whispered into his ears that out in Fuehrer Headquarters they were too busy to worry about Catholics and Jews. The setup, as far as Bormann was concerned, was perfect.

In the early weeks of July, 1941, the great Catholic areas of the Rhineland, Bavaria, Westphalia, former Austria and Sudetenland among others found themselves in the throes of a new Nazi wave of oppression, featured chiefly by the wholesale closing down of convents and cloisters.

NUNS AND PRIESTS DISPOSSESSED

Uniformed men of the S.S. (Elite Nazi Guard), and non-uniformed men of the Gestapo swarmed into towns and villages, rudely dispossessing nuns and priests alike and driving them into the streets without notice.

Catholic orders of all kinds were disbanded; German families going to mass on Sunday had to file past glaring S.S. muscle-men at the door of the church; the cloisters and convents were turned into dormitories for Germans brought back from abroad.

Those Catholics who contributed heavily to the church or refused to be intimidated by ordinary means, were subjected to the fine process or terrorism by telephone calls at all hours of the night or

PICKAWAY CHAPTER SET UP TO FIGHT RAVAGES OF POLIO

Mrs. Frank L. Marion Named Chairman Of Committee; Purpose Outlined

A Pickaway County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis was organized Friday night when a group of citizens from Circleville and Pickaway County gathered in the Common Pleas courtroom of the Court House.

Directing the activities of the newly organized chapter will be Mrs. Frank L. Marion, 307 East Franklin Street, elected chairman and secretary. Fred C. Clark, director of the local Infantile Paralysis campaign, will serve as vice-chairman and Robert Colville will be treasurer.

Dr. A. D. Blackburn, county health commissioner, will head the executive committee of the chapter.

The chapter was organized after J. E. Trautman, director of the state Infantile campaign and Mr. Clark, local director, had discussed the benefits which the community would gain by having such an organization.

The National Foundation is a non-profit membership organization, established in 1938 to combat Infantile Paralysis, including cause, prevention and treatment. It has no connection with any organization other than its own local chapters and the Committee for the Celebration of the President's Birthday. This Committee is the National Foundation's fund-raising unit.

Duty of the local chapter will be to assist those afflicted with infantile paralysis, regardless of age, race, color or creed, in Pickaway County. This assistance includes orthopedic equipment of hospital expenses for patients in need of that care. During epidemics the volunteer workers not only aid those stricken by the disease but also work with doctors and public health officials.

One-half the money raised through the President's Birthday Ball and other infantile paralysis fund-raising campaigns, is left in the county. Here it will be used by the local chapter to finance its services. The remainder of the money is used by the National Foundation to carry on its work in research, education and epidemics. Expenses of the fund-raising units are about 7.5 percent of the total amount raised, officials claim.

Other members of the executive board are Miss Margaret Hunsicker, county health nurse; Mrs. Mae M. Groom, city health nurse; Dr. H. Marcy, the Rev. L. C. Sherburne; Robert Colville, Frank Lynch, Tom Gilliland, Judge Lemuel Weldon, Dr. D. V. Courtland, J. Wray Henry, George McDowell and Clark Hunsicker.

Chairmen in the various townships are Mrs. C. M. Reid, Muilenberg Township; Mrs. L. E. Hill, Darby Township; Mrs. H. E. Louis and Mrs. Dudley Roth, New Holland; Mrs. Marie Walters, and Mrs. Loring Stoer, Monroe Township; Mrs. Walter Downing, Wayne Township; Mrs. J. L. Frazier, Walnut Township; Mrs. C. E. Brown, Deercreek Township; Mrs. Ralph Head, Pickaway Township; Mrs. Kenneth Rush, Scioto Township; Mrs. Smith Hulse, Jackson Township; Harold Strous, Saltcreek Township; Mrs. Wayne Brown, Madison Township; Mrs. Jesse Baum, Harrison Township; Mrs. Elmton Richards, Washington Township, and James Willis, Perry Township.

A terrific British aerial attack which smashed and scattered 400 enemy motorized transport vehicles on the Libyan desert was announced by the British Air Ministry today.

According to an observer, the air ministry said, the transports were packed like sardines in a Libyan battle area when they were attacked on Thursday by fighter and bomber aircraft of the imperial air forces.

"Making the operation more notable," the air ministry said, "was the fact that Kitty Hawk fighters simultaneously attacked an escorted formation of Stuka dive-bombers. The Kitty Hawks were flown by a squadron of the Royal Australian Air Force which now holds the record bag of enemy aircraft in the middle east."

At Rio De Janeiro, delegates to the Inter-American conference were scheduled to adopt the new and more moderate resolution "recommending" a joint rupture of diplomatic relations with the axis powers.

Total railroad investments, including road and equipment, amounts to $26,500,000,000.

16, the final day of registration, the hours will be from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. All persons within the county required to register will appear at the court house on one of the three days in accordance with the following plan:

The Draft Board requests that persons whose last name begins with the letters A to F appear for registration on Saturday, February 14, between 12 noon and 6 p.m.; persons whose last name begins with the letters G to Q should register Sunday, February 15, from 12 noon to 6 p.m., and all persons whose last name begins with letters R to Z should appear for registration Monday, February 16, between 7 a.m. and 9 p.m.

It is to be understood, however, that this plan is entirely voluntary and should it work a hardship on any person to comply, he may register at the time most convenient. All persons must be registered by 9 p.m., February 13.

The board seeks the cooperation of all persons required to register in carrying out the plan for alphabetic registration. The plan is an attempt to spread the registration evenly over the three day period in order that there will be no waiting in line.

sub with aerial bombs, one or more of which fell on the deck of the raider, but failed to explode. Indications are that no "duds" are being dropped today.

AIM IS NAZI CHURCH

As for both Catholic and Protestant faiths, Rosenberg demands and propagates the National Church of Greater Germany, allied in the light and principle and unified with the Nazi regime in all means and methods of furthering the power and dominance of the Reich.

It is known that "blimps," are playing an important role in helping to track down raiders. They hover over the sea, enabling their crews to spot shadows of U-boats even when they are submerged. Seaplanes, torpedo boats and destroyers also are deadly enemies of subs.

STATEMENT GIVEN

Detection devices also have been improved since World War I, especially by the American navy, with the result that subs, as a rule, steer clear of warships. These are some of the reasons why the Navy spokesman told the press:

"Some of the recent visitors to our territorial waters will never enjoy the return trip portion of their voyage. Furthermore, the percentage of one-way traffic is increasing, while that of two-way traffic is satisfactorily on the decline."

The spokesman wanted to put across, however, was the need for secrecy regarding the possible sinking or capture of enemy submarines. The Nazis naturally expect to lose submarines, but presumably it isn't very soothing to the nerves of axis officials or other sub crew members if they are "kept in the dark" about the fate of their raiders.

The Local Selective Service Board will be assisted in the registration by members of the American Legion and other volunteers, many of whom have offered assistance. A list of all persons volunteering assistance will be kept at the Local Office and volunteers will be notified of and when their services are needed.

CHURCHES CLOSED IN POLAND

In Poland, the churches were temporarily closed, with the exception of Cracow; in Innsbruck of former Austria, the drunken Gauleiter Andreas Hofer forbade further religious processions.

Roadside shrines with pictures or statuettes of Christ were stripped; in the heart of Innsbruck city a beautiful bouquet of roses appeared regularly as if by magic in the empty shrine in the square, a silent but bold protest against the fanaticism of Hofer. The Gauleiter, drunk or sober, raged at the insult and posted guards at the empty shrine, but not only did the bouquet appear each day but similar ones decorated shrines all over the city, placed there by mysterious hands.

A switch in guards and the dire threats by Hofer changed nothing; people stood in obvious lines before church doors despite the Gestapo to attend Sunday services.
